In the website its self it's clearly mentioned I am not Jeffrey Beall. I prefer my identity to be anonymous.

I am not Jeffrey Beall. I prefer my identity to be anonymous, largely for the reasons that Beall mentioned in his recent article (see here). However, I can tell you that I am a postdoctoral researcher in one of the European universities and have hands-on experience with predatory journals.

I will keep the list updated as much as possible, although I suspect I simply won't have time to do as thorough job as Beall. Hopefully, people will point me to the new, possibly predatory journals and publishers. However, expect the list's applicability to diminish over time. That is why I strongly suggest anyone that deals with publishing academic articles to read the information available on ThinkCheckSubmit.org, which has tips about how to publish in a journal that is not predatorv. I would also

There is no address given in the website and not even an email id mentioned in the website to contact. But however we contacted through a form given in the <https://beallslist.net/contact/> we received nothing as a reply. We did it for several times.

We found these above websites are fake and misleading. There is no contact address given and these fake websites.

We request our Authors, Editors, Researchers, Associate organizations, Media Partners, Govt. Agencies and all the stake holders, do not take information available in the above websites seriously.

Our Legal team has already initialed the action against these websites.
